With Five Others is Acquitted of Conspiracy to Free Salazar.

Santa Fe, N. M., Dec. 10.—Elfego Bron. of El Pass and New Mexico, to-gether with Trisidad de Baca, state same warden; Manuel U. Vigil, district attorney for the second judicial dis-trict, and three others, have been de-chared not guilty of compliacy in con-nection with the release of Gen. Jose Frez Saiazar from the Bernalilio coun-ty jail in Old Albuquerque on Novem-ber 29, 1814.

The Baca trial has been in pro-ber 29, 1914.

The Baca trial has been in progress here during the entire past week and has attracted much attention because of the prominence of the men under the charges and because of the fame of the Salazar escape case.

Salazar was awalting trial at Albaquerque on a charge of perjury, of which he was recently acquitted. He was taken or managed to make his escape, from the county jail, rode night and day and crossed the border near Columbus, N. M. to take up his command in the field in northern Chibalana.

Later Para, Viril De Baca and the nuahuo.

Later Baca, Vigil, De Baca and the titlers were arrested in connection with the alleged conspirace. The trial was in the United States district court und a number of witnesses from Alleguerque and El Paso were summoned.

FATHER KILLED BY YAQUIS; SON DIES OF SCARLET FEVER

When U. S. customs inspectors stopped Willis Hollis at the Santa Fe bridge Saturday afternoon, they heard a suspicious tinkle of glass striking against glass somewhere in the vicinity of Willis's legs, they say.

An investigation is said to have revealed the fact that the negro had eight tiny bottles of cocaine attached to strings, each string fastened to the inside of his trouser legs.

A complaint chargon law was filed in the U. S. commissioner's court and a warrant issued for Hollis.
